| First Selectman | Gayle Weinstein | 203-222-2656 | gweinstein@westonct.gov |

The First Selectman serves as the Chief Executive and Chief Administrative Officer of the Town. Along with presiding over Board of Selectmen meetings, the First Selectman serves as an ex-officio member of all Town Boards, Commissions and Committees. It is the responsibility of the First Selectman to supervise the administration of the town and to “execute and carry out ordinances, resolutions, policies and other actions approved by the Board of Selectman or the Town Meeting”. This can consist of overseeing programs, activities, and budgets in regard to their short-term and long-term effects on the town. In addition, the First Selectman acts as a link between Weston and State, regional, and federal agencies.

Weston’s First Selectman is Gayle Weinstein (D).

Gayle, along with her husband and two sons, has been residents of Weston for 18 years. She has served on the Board of Selectmen since 2007 and as First Selectman since 2009. Prior to that, she was a member of the Town’s Veteran’s Affairs Committee and served as President of the Intermediate School PTO.

Along with her First Selectmen responsibilities, Gayle currently serves as Vice Chair of Connecticut Council of Municipalities’ Task Force on Children, Youth and Families is a Board member of the Connecticut Council of Small Towns and a Board member of the Connecticut Citizens fund.

Gayle maintains an open door policy and welcomes the opportunity to speak with residents about any questions or concerns they may have. Brown bag lunches are held the first Monday of the month where lively discussions about the state of the Town often ensue.
